

Product Data Sheet

Momento Silverline

Product name: Momento Silverline
Function: Rust Preventative concentrate for the Momento Silverline coating of machine operated sockets.

Momento Silverline is a waterbased white milky liquid, biobased and biodegradable rust protection that is designed to protect metal components during storage and transport. Momento Silverline leaves an invisible dry protective film.

Classification of the substance or mixture

Classification: The product does not contain any components subject to labeling. Classification according to regulations (EC) 1272/2008 [CLP]

Composition/information on ingredients

Momento Silverline is a vegetable oil/corrosion inhibitor blend emulsified in water.

The product is free from chlorinated substances, chromates and nitrates. Free from VOC (volatile organic compounds). Contains no PBT or vPvB-substances.

Ecological information

This product is considered not to be environmentally hazardous. However emissions to the environment must always be prevented.

Limitation of exposure/personal protection

Protective gloves, nitrile or viton, are recommended for handling, at risk of direct contact.